Registration Fees for 2008

The registration fees for the League are structured to support the cost of playing baseball on a per player basis. These costs include uniforms, insurance, League fees, baseballs, catching equipment, helmets, tees, umpires, trophies, field maintenance and preparation costs and other league operating expenses.

In 2008, these costs are budgeted to exceed one hundred dollars per player. Team sponsorships are used to offset these costs so that the registration fees can remain similar to those in previous years.

2007 Registration Fees:

Tee Ball .....$70
Other Divisions ...$90

A $5 discount applies to each additional family member that is registered.

Any registration received after 1/31/08 will be subject to an additional $20 late registration fee.

Family discount does not apply to the late registration fees.
